

General Science Project Work- Parts Of A Plant

Instructions-

- The project should be handwritten in neat and clear handwriting.
 - It should have relevant pictures or sketches, nicely coloured and properly labelled.
 - It should be submitted immediately when the school reopens.
 - Previous class books, other reference books or internet can be used for reference.
 - Don't go out of your house to buy anything for the project. Use the resources available at home.
-

Things to be done-

- Introduction- write few lines about plants and their importance for us.
- Name of all the parts of a plant and their functions. (root, stem, leaf, flower, fruits and seeds)
- Write the importance of each part and draw neat and properly labelled diagrams.
- Conclusion-
 - a) What can happen if plants will not be there on the earth.
 - b) Unpleasant human activities that are harmful for plants and our environment.
 - c) Methods to take care of plants.